

SCENE - INT - MIKE AND DAVE ARE SAT AT A TABLE IN A TYPICAL WHETHERSPOONS PUB.

DAVE

The children in this country are the stupidest and fattest in all of Europe!

MIKE

That's a shocking thing to say Dave.

DAVE

I don't enjoy saying in mate but it's a fact. In France. By the time a child is five they can read, write, they know their multiplication tables.

MIKE

Blimey!

DAVE

And they can speak French! Our kids are still struggling with English.

MIKE (Confused)

But don't they..

DAVE

In Britain we're lucky if our kids can name 3 of the 5 tele-tubbies.

MIKE

Well there's La-La, Pinky, Stinky

DAVE

In fact! In Britain that's probably a GCSE question.

MIKE

Well it's one of those ones you either know or you don't.

DAVE

Our kids need a proper healthy diet to help them keep focus in school. Starting from when they're born. I've said it many times before. I'm a big fan of women breast-feeding.

MIKE

That's why you buy those, uh, magazines.

DAVE

And we need to stop feeding our kids junk food and bloody happy meals. There's an Irony. Nothing happy about shoving yellow blubbery lard into our kid's arteries.

MIKE

Nothing happy at all Dave. What do French kids eat then?

DAVE

I dunno. Probably something like Duck a la'Orange.

MIKE

Plenty of fruit then.

DAVE

Absolutely. A healthy balanced diet makes a healthy mind.

A WAITRESS BRINGS OVER TWO PLATES OF FOOD.

WAITRESS

Two double Bacon and Cheese Burgers?

DAVE (To waitress)

Yep, ta.

WAITRESS PUTS THE FOOD ON THEIR TABLE.

DAVE

Of course, it's not all bad news. Our fatso kids are still 50% smarter than American kids.
